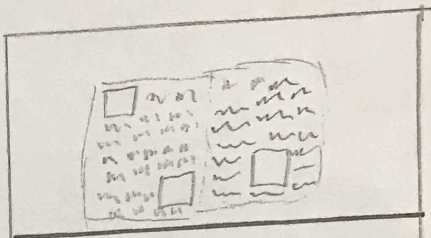
The Blitz

What is the Blitz?



newspaper

After the battle of Britan, Germany gave up targeting air force and military bases, so they started Mass bombing buildings during 1940 and 1941. On the 7th of september 1940 the first bombing started during the day in London and was the only bombing during the day ~~throughout~~ throughout the entire Blitz, it curried on for 57 long nights. 'Blitz' in German means lightning, it was used by the newsreporters to speard fear.

Where did they bomb?

Places were bombed during the Blitz when people were in them. 26 schools were bombed while docks were as well so the food suppiles couldn't come in so no one could eat. They bombed factorys so they couldn't make weapons to attack. They aslo bombed places like Bristol, Liverpool, Plymouth and coventary They didn't let railways stay because they didn't want people out the town.
