~~we~~ what

~~whisle~~ whisle so that meant that we arrived from the journey.

We had to choose our partners and I chose Jill and she chose me so we were partners. So me and Jill were talking while we were walking.

Then everyone stopped in front of this long building, Jill thought the buitding was the hall where we got chosen. It looked like she was right. We were inside the building and the was huge! We all had to sit on the benches, but I did not end up sitting next to Jill because she was the first person to be chosen.

One by one everyone started to go to their new family, I was one of only a few who were left. Bitt don't worry mum, someone changed my luck. Eventually this nice woman came up to me and said, "Hello darling you're coming with me." So I look her hand and we walked through the village and arrived outside a litte house.
