The blitz

blitz comes from the German word for lightning. And was used by the News reporters. It used for when Germans bombed Britain from the air. It lasted between September 1940 and May 1941 there were months of bombing.

Terrible things happened during the air raids in those months. Air raid wardens turning the sirens on. You could hear the bomber engines in the sky. People called the sound of the falling bombs meaning minnie. The fire filled the sky red.

The German targeted factories warehouse and docks so the didn't have any spare. Trying to cause destruction and to scare people in Britain. Plymouth was bombed heavily in the blitz because of the Naval dockyard. The

The German had 5 different bombs there were 3 types of bomb
