PROSPECTUS

Fletewood School is a Christian Independent School for boys and girls of all faiths between the ages of three and eleven

Small classes enable the teachers to know each child and give special help where needed. They aim to encourage the children to develop strength of character and gain a desire for life-long learning. It is in this context that the children are encouraged to find their direction in life and their personal identity.

Curriculum

The school follows the best of the National Curriculum and seeks to give a thorough grounding in all academic areas. This goal is pursued through topic work, library usage, audiovisual media, computers (each child in the upper school has his/her own personal laptop to use at school), supervised Internet exploration and educational visits to places of interest to the pupils.

Physical Education

Owing to restricted playground space, Classes Two, Three and Four use nearby local facilities for a variety of games activities, which include rounders, football, cricket, badminton, ice-skating, and tag-rugby. Fencing is also taught as an after-school club (there is a small charge for this activity). All classes throughout the school have at least two P.E. lessons per week that are conducted in the upper hall where the apparatus is stored.

Healthy Living

The children are taught the importance of exercise combined with a healthy diet. The importance of hydration is explained and the children are encouraged to drink sufficient amounts of filtered water throughout the day. We believe that a healthy body will foster a healthy mind and we encourage parents to support our endeavours by reinforcing at home what is taught in school.

Discipline

The school has a clearly defined process for discipline which ranges from the initial "telling off" to the final exclusion from the school. In actuality, because of the small size of the school, it is rare that any action further than the initial "telling off" is needed.

Holidays

The term dates are generally the same as the Plymouth City Schools. The school hours are from 9.00 am to 3.15 pm Monday to Friday.

After School Care

Before and after school care is available for those who need to place their children in school outside normal school hours.

The school is organised into four classes:

Class One – caters for children from three to five years and covers the nursery/reception period. This class is primarily to lay the foundation in language and mathematics so that each child can be advantaged in his/her next class.

Class Two – caters for the infant age range, namely six to seven years old. Now known as years one and two, it is in this class that the National Curriculum structure begins but we find that most children entering the class from Class One are well into their National Curriculum attainment targets for both language and mathematics.

Class Three – continues with years three and four, namely eight to nine years old. This class continues to develop the skills that have been encountered in the two previous classes and guides towards the more independent work structure of Class Four.

Class Four – the final class, years five and six. In this class the children are taught to be more independent in their studies with emphasis placed on preparation for secondary school.

Progress Reports

Progress reports for each class are issued at the end of summer term. In addition to this there are termly parent evenings where you will be given the opportunity to have an informal discussion with the class teacher about your child's progress and aspirations. In addition to the open evenings the teachers will be more than willing to discuss your child's progress with you at any other mutually convenient time. At Fletewood we feel it paramount that school and home work together in encouraging excellence.
